Section 230 enables websites and other Internet intermediaries, big and small, to host and moderate user content, by ensuring they are not held legally responsible for their users’ posts. Section 230 provides social media platforms and other intermediaries with protections under Section 230.

WHAT IF SECTION 230 PROTECTIONS DID NOT EXIST?

LAW SUITS INCREASE
Website could be legally responsible for everything users post.

LAW SUITS DECREASE
Section 230 provides protections for user content and allows platforms to moderate harmful content and hate speech.

MODERATION
Controversial opinions silenced

SECTION 230 PROTECTS MODERATORS

Section 230 enables websites and other Internet intermediaries, big and small, to host and moderate user content, by ensuring they are not held legally responsible for their users’ posts. Section 230 provides social media platforms and other intermediaries with protections under Section 230.

WHY DOES SECTION 230 MATTER TO LGBTQ+ INDIVIDUALS?

Marginalized voices online face harassment every day and platforms need to do more to protect them—but it shouldn’t take the threat of narrowing Section 230 to force companies to implement those measures.

Section 230 provides social media platforms and other intermediaries with protections under Section 230.
